

Privacy Notice for Job Applicants

How we use your information

Under data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how the Trust uses any personal data we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing 'privacy notices' (sometimes called 'fair processing notices') to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about individuals applying for jobs at our Trust.

We, The Cam Academy Trust, Comberton Village College, West Street, Comberton, Cambridgeshire, CB23 7DU are the 'data controller' for the purposes of data protection law.

Our data protection officer is Carolyn Ducket (see 'Contact us' below).

Successful candidates should refer to our privacy notice for the Trust employees for information about how their personal data is collected, stored and used. This can be found on the Trust website or from the HR Office.

The personal data we hold

We process data relating to those applying to work at our Trust. Personal data that we may collect, use, store and share (when appropriate) about you includes, but is not restricted to:

- Contact details (name, address, email address, telephone and/or mobile number)
- Copies of right to work documentation
- References
- Evidence of qualifications
- Employment records, including work history, job titles, training records and professional memberships

We may also collect, store and use information about you that falls into "special categories" of more sensitive personal data. This includes information about (where applicable):

- Race, ethnicity, religious beliefs, sexual orientation and political opinions
- Disability and access requirements

Why we use this data

Your personal data will be used to process your employment application. The purpose of processing this data is to aid the recruitment process by:

- Enabling us to establish relevant experience and qualifications
- Facilitating safe recruitment, as part of our safeguarding obligations towards pupils
- Enabling equalities monitoring
- To support 'Track & Trace Services in the event of a national or local pandemic
- Ensuring that appropriate access arrangements can be provided for candidates that require them

Our legal basis for using this data

We only collect and use personal information about you when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we use it where we need to:

- Comply with a legal obligation
- Carry out a task in the public interest

Less commonly, we may also use personal information about you where:

- You have given us consent to use it in a certain way
- We need to protect your vital interests (or someone else's interests)
- We have legitimate interests in processing the data

Where you have provided us with consent to use your data, you may withdraw this consent at any time. We will make this clear when requesting your consent, and explain how you go about withdrawing consent if you wish to do so.

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using personal information about you overlap, and there may be several grounds which justify the Trust's use of your data.

Collecting this information

While the majority of the information we collect from you is mandatory, there is some information that you can choose whether or not to provide to us.

Whenever we seek to collect information from you, we make it clear whether you must provide this information (and if so, what the possible consequences are of not complying), or whether you have a choice.

How we store this data

Personal data we collect as part of the job application process is stored in line with our Data Retention Policy.

When it is no longer required, we will delete your information in accordance with our Data Retention Policy. Which is located on the Trust website <https://www.catrust.co.uk/>

If you wish the Trust to hold your personal data longer than our 'Data Retention' policy specifies (6 months) then you must give written consent for the Trust to hold this data and the reason why (hold on file to be notified if similar position within the Trust become available).

Data sharing

We do not share information about you with any third party without your consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Where it is legally required, or necessary (and it complies with data protection law), we may share personal information about you with:

- Our local authority – to meet our legal obligations to share certain information with it, such as shortlists of candidates for a Head teacher/Principle position
- Suppliers and service providers – to enable them to provide the service we have contracted them for, such as HR and recruitment support
- Government, Local Government & Agencies – To include data for 'Track & Trace' Services
- Professional advisers and consultants – for the purpose of meeting safeguarding requirements
- Health Authorities – To include data for Track & Trace Services
- Employment and recruitment agencies – to enable us to recruit for an advertised post

Requesting access to your personal data

Under data protection legislation, you have the right to request access to information about you that we hold. To make a request for your personal information, contact the HR Office or the Trust Data Protection Officer.

If you make a subject access request, and if we do hold information about you, we will:

- Give you a description of it
- Tell you why we are holding and processing it, and how long we will keep it for
- Explain where we got it from, if not from you
- Tell you who it has been, or will be, shared with

- Let you know whether any automated decision-making is being applied to the data,
- and any consequences of this
- Give you a copy of the information in an intelligible form

You may also have a right for your personal information to be transmitted electronically to another organisation in certain circumstances.

Under certain circumstances you also have the right to:

- object to processing of personal data that is likely to cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- prevent processing for the purpose of direct marketing
- object to decisions being taken by automated means
- in certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data rectified, blocked, erased or destroyed; and
- a right to seek redress, either through the ICO, or through the courts

If you have any questions or would like to discuss anything in this privacy notice please contact the Trust Data Protection Officer Carolyn Ducket at cducket@catrust.co.uk

If you have a concern or a complaint about how we collect and use your personal data, you should raise your concern with the school in the first instance. You can do this by contacting the Headteacher/Principle.

You can make a complaint at any time by emailing our data protection officer cducket@catrust.co.uk

You can also complain to the Information Commissioner's Office in one of the following ways:
